...RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to pass an order or issue a direction or issue a writ more particularly one in the nature of writ of mandamus declaring the action of the respondents in stopping the BCA counseling all of a sudden inspite of seats are available in number of colleges within the jurisdiction of the Osmania University, as arbitrary, illegal and null and void, and consequently direct the respondents to conduct re-counseling for BCA course 2000 to allot admissions to the eligible candidates in various colleges within the jurisdiction of Osmania University.

Counsel for the Petitioners: MR.SHAIK ANWAR PASHA

Counsel for the Respondents : MR.K.RAMAKANTH REDDY

The Court made the following :

ORDER:

The petitioners filed the present writ petition seeking a declaration that the action of the respondents in stopping the cancellation for BCA Course for the academic year 2000-2001 is illegal and arbitrary. They also sought for a direction to the respondents to conduct re-counseling for BCA course and admit the petitioners in various colleges.

This Court while admitting the writ petition, passed interim orders in W.P.M.P.No.31677 of 2000, dated 15.12.2000, directing the respondents to consider the case of the petitioners for admission into BCA course. It is not known whether pursuant to such directions the petitioners were admitted to the course or not. Be that as it is, even assuming that the petitioners are admitted, in all probability, they have completed the course and no further orders are necessary. If the petitioners are not already admitted into the course, no direction can be issued to admit them now for the academic year 2000-2001. Therefore, the writ petition has become infructuous.

The writ petition is dismissed as having become infructuous. No costs.
